As a general rule, on the first day, be present from 9 a.m. onwards. On the last day, the teachings end around 5 p.m.

Meals are counted from the evening before the first day of teaching to the lunch on the last day.

These rates are calculated as low as possible in order to balance the association's expenses. Nevertheless, in case of financial difficulty, do not hesitate to contact us; your situation will be examined so that this is not an obstacle to your participation. Also, if you wish to come with your children or if there are any other special circumstances, do not hesitate to let us know.
